Support for Learning

- Easy to read parts - All the parts are available with note names. Many of the rhythms can be learned by note, enabling the less able student or beginner to make an enjoyable and interesting contribution.
- Progression - The concepts have been repeated in many of the arrangements, allowing the students to progress at a slower pace with lots of reinforcement of the concepts being covered in as many different contexts as possible.
- Age appropriate - Although the instrumental skills required to play the parts are basic, the pieces with the CD backing tracks give the arrangements a contemporary feel and give cues to the instrumentalist.
- Concept sheets - Explanations are given of the concepts and their use within the arrangements. Students can refer to these when completing their personal logs (see below).
- Compositional ideas - Basic ideas are given to help build confidence in handling the 'building bricks' of music.
- Personal logs - Printable listening logs are included for students to record the concepts they are working on. The personal logs have plenty of space for the students to write in.

Styles included - World, Rock, Dance, Blues, Celtic, Reggae, Salsa and Country & Western.

" My kids love this stuff-they relate to the musical styles."

David Henederson Director of Music, Hamilton College
